Description

Thanks to the action that Thermal Nourishing Cream exfoliates during the night, the skin regains energy, strength and vitality and appears fresh and toned in the morning. By improving the elasticity and compactness of the epidermal tissue, it helps to fight and prevent the aging of the skin, leaving the skin smooth and smooth. It gives a mature and fatigued skin an intense feeling of well-being and contentment and a brighter and more youthful appearance.

APPLICATION

In the evening, after detoxification and Tonic Thermal Water, apply on face and neck, avoiding eye contour. Massage with gentle and prolonged movements until full absorption.
